

the sloth is down to earth , non-chalant, and continuously minding their own business . correlations with self awareness and care. shows include bluey, and anything with zendaya. movies like the newest cinderella addition. music like stick season by noah khan, and the song sad soul by amaya rodrigigez it shows your emotions and gives you the opportunity to belt them out. holds your inner self outside of various factors.

the wolf is beautiful , travels in packs, are intelligent, and strong which greatly symbolizes the life you have. some correlations could be being a leader in a community, shows like vampire diaries, dynasty,lucifer. and movies like rise of the guardians and inception. music like his glory alone II by kb and across the spider-verse by metro boomin. leads your athleticism. holds your confidence the turtle is wise, chill, shows mental strength and symbolic for family ties it reminds you to let things roll of your back some correlations being relationships with friends and family. shows like julian and the phantoms,victorious, and the sweet life. movies like black panther, and the into the spider-verse. music like willow by renee rapp andyoungforeverbynessa. leads your inner strength and courage.

dara olusina

was born on april eighth 2003 in the greater richmond area two older brothers one four years older and one seven years older childhood memories of reading dystopian books, playing six sports: soccer, volleyball, always have had a love for art home school til grade 10 served its purpose to be in community college by grade 11, went to high point as vcu was the last choice vcu wasn't the ideal place but has grown to be enjoyable. playing soccer and volleyball, being vice president of a fellowship, and continuing art in the near future will be studying in qatar and finishing college then after traveling across the world, experience different cultures. & of course skydiving !

things that should be tucked away right now because you are more than them, your fear of being alone , your feeling of not being good enough, and annoying things like your pet peeves of when people interrupt others while they're speaking, not responding to text messages, and unnecessary loud people, bad drivers, and squeaky things

